

Honorable Greg N. Stivers

Chief District Judge

United States District Court for the Western District of Kentucky

IN RE: Criminal Action 4:17-CR-00012-GNS (USA v Maike et all)

Dear Judge Stivers,

My name is Candice Keller, and I would like to share with you my personal experience with Faraday Hosseinipour since we met in 2013 through I2G.

Faraday at this time, was my I2G upline leader that my direct sponsor, Dennis Dvorin introduced me to. She was always available to me by phone to help me with the business while Dennis was not. Her kindness and professionalism went hand in hand. She always made herself available whenever I needed her help.

With our mutual love for animals, we became friends besides being business associates.

Since Dennis was not supportive, Faraday became my "go to person" for support.

As an IBO in I2G we all focused on sharing the products, that we all believed would experience steady growth. I know that Faraday also believed in the product growth, legitimacy, and longevity of the company. No IBO, and that includes Faraday, thought that the CEO Richard Maike would do anything illegitimate.

Unfortunately, he did, and I along with many other IBOs lost money. Richard Maike pulled the wool over everyone, including Faraday. It is Richard Maike who should see justice, not Faraday. Even though her hard work resulted in monetary benefit at that time, she is just as much a victim of his deceit as the rest of us.

Faraday never had a clue of what Richard Maike was truly doing with his company.

I urge to you to please give her a chance for proper representation and a fair trial as I believe she will be exonerated of all charges. Only Mr. Maike and any knowledgeable corporate player should be held accountable.

My friendship has continued since the end of I2G, and I have witnessed her continued integrity and hard work in developing her own business in the travel industry.

Again, I hope you grant Faraday proper representation and a fair trial under our justice system.

Respectfully,
